

Calgary Board
of Education

Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Chief Justice Milvain School acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2025-2026 school year:

Our school community is dedicated to creating systems and practices that encourage positive conflict resolution using sharing circles as a foundation to support open dialogue and mutual respect. As a school, we will use the four interconnected domains: Spirit-To Be, Heart-to Belong, Body-To Do, Mind-To Know to nurture our school's foundational beliefs of Care for Self, Care for Others, and Care for this Place. Additionally, we will design professional learning opportunities that deepen our understanding of the Indigenous Education Holistic Lifelong Learning Framework. Circle Friday will serve as a school-wide opportunity for community building, allowing us to advance our shared TRC commitment in a good way.

As we make our commitment, we are inspired by Call to Action 63.3 (iii), which encourages learning grounded in Indigenous knowledge to help students develop intercultural understanding, empathy, and mutual respect.

Date: June 20, 2025