Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

Mind – To Know

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Chief Justice Milvain School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2026-2027 school year:

1. Learn and work with Indigenous Elders and Knowledge Keepers to deepen Indigenous students' relationships to language, culture, community, and learning through songs, stories, and ceremonies shared according to local protocols.
2. Actively create opportunities for students, staff, and families to learn about and engage in Indigenous land-based and place-based learning.
3. Our school is also dedicated to using Circle Friday and sharing circles as a foundation to support open dialogue and mutual respect. As a school we will use the four interconnected domains: Spirit-to-Be, Heart-to-Belong, Body-to-Do and Mind-to-Know to nurture our school's foundational beliefs of Care for Self, Care for Others, and Care for this Place. allowing us to advance our shared TRC commitment in a good way.

As we make our commitments, we are inspired by Calls to Action 62.1, 62.2, 62.3, 63.1, 63.2, 63.3 which encourages action grounded in Indigenous knowledge to help students develop intercultural understanding, empathy, and mutual respect.
